Imagination Library launches in Albert County

(Moncton – February 3, 2010) – Media representatives are invited to the local launch of a family literacy program on Monday, February 8th, 2010. .

District officials and representatives from various community organizations will be on hand for the launch of The Imagination Library, a family literacy program that helps communities provide high-quality books to inspire a love of reading in very young children. The Imagination Library was launched in the spring of 2009 in Port Elgin and then in the fall in Moncton area schools.

The program is expanding to serve preschoolers in Albert County thanks to the generous support of the Bennett & Albert County Health Care Foundation.

Special guests will read a book from the Imagination Library to an audience of preschool children. Hillsborough Mayor Donna Bennett will read at Hillsborough Elementary, and Retired Principal Barb Gebuhr will be reading at Riverside Consolidated.
