2010 RBC Children's Art & Literacy contest

“What I hope to do this summer”

The theme of the contest this year “What I hope to do this summer” gives you an opportunity to think about what you want to do on your summer vacation. It could be going to the beach, camping, fun on the water, the attractions, seeing family – anything that makes summer a special time for you.

You can write a story, draw a picture or create a poem.

A total of nine winners will be selected in three different age categories. Winning entries will be published. To find out how to enter, visit the Literacy Coalition of New Brunswick at www.nb.literacy.ca

Win Prizes!

- Shopping gift certificates
- Movie gift certificates
- Tote bag full of goodies

Contest Dates:

May 17 to July 30, 2010*

*Please note that winning entries will be part of the Family Festival for Literacy to be held on Wednesday, August 18, 2010 between noon and 1 p.m.

Stay tuned to the Literacy Coalition of New Brunswick website for more Family Festival for Literacy details. This is one event you are not going to want to miss!

The contest is one of many activities that will be presented at this year's PGI Golf Tournament for Literacy NB 2010, that has raised more than $1.1M for literacy programs in New Brunswick since 2002.
